Belaroma barista named Australia's best

Scottie Callaghan's signature coffee creation got him over the line. Belaroma Coffee Roasting Company's head trainer and brand ambassador, Scottie Callaghan, has taken out top honours at the 2010 Australasian Specialty Coffee Association's Australian Barista Championships. Competing baristas were given 15 minutes to create an espresso, a cappuccino and a signature coffee and then have them tasted by four judges. It was Callaghan's signature coffee that impressed the judges. It featured a piece of wood to hold glasses which had muslin cloth containing cardamon seeds suspended over them.
